

TIMELESS APPEAL

The Ballroom at Park Lane is located at the historic Park Lane Villa in the heart of Cleveland's University Circle. With its majestic spaces, speakeasy parlor, skyward ceilings, local fare, old world architectural features and modern facilities, The Ballroom serves as the perfect backdrop for weddings, social celebrations and much more.

ELEGANT AND EFFORTLESS

Our dedicated team of event planners has partnered with Cleveland's finest vendors to shape the occasion of a lifetime for you and your guests. It's effortless: simply customize your event using the insight of our staff or select an all-inclusive offering to create the perfect event.

A VERSATILE VENUE

The Ballroom at Park Lane is as beautiful as it is adaptable to suit virtually any occasion, including fundraisers, private or corporate events, and proms. Our event planners are experienced professionals who organize your event from start to finish, and we can also work hand-in-hand with event planners and third-party agencies of your choice.

YOUR PALETTE OF AMENITIES

Our venue is well designed and offers a variety of compositions, including the main ballroom with its wrap-around balcony and stage, private courtyard, speakeasy bar and lounge, and private groom and bridal suites. The well-preserved vintage character speaks to the Ballroom's history while leaving a palette of amenities to customize your own event.

From the Old World to the New

Originally built in 1923 as a luxury hotel and speakeasy for the influential and elite, The Ballroom at Park Lane has changed with the times to accentuate America's most pivotal eras. As a concert venue in the 60s, it hosted folk legends Bob Dylan and Arlo Guthrie. Today, it serves as the backdrop for Cleveland's most talked about weddings and events.
